[18&19]

Read the passage and answer the following questions.

One day, Mr. Trim woke up feeling ill and his doctor ordered him to stay in bed. A supply teacher called Miss Jumble came to look after his class. She was monstrously messy, but she was also fantastic fun. In math, she took the class bowling. She covered up the screen so they had to add up their own score. In geography, she took everyone map reading in the woods. In history, everyone dressed up as knights and princesses. The children loved Miss Jumble. But now and again, they thought it might be nice to have Mr. Trim back for a few hours... Just for a bit of peace and quiet.

- 18. Why did the students want Mr. Trim back?
 - ① They didn't like Miss Jumble.
 - ② They got bored by having too many activities.
 - ③ They wanted to have a bit of peace and quiet.

[24&25]

Read the passage and answer the following questions.

19th May
Dear Poppa King,
There are so many things to learn to be a Dragon Catcher! Today we had rope practice. You have to throw a piece of rope, which has a loop at one end, over a dragon's head (of course the dragon's head is a wooden one tied to the top of a post).
You have to start two paces away from the post, then keep stepping backwards until you're at least eight paces away. I stepped back ten paces. I was the best in the whole group!
*Lots of love,
Jemima*

24. What does the princess learn at her school?
- ① She learns to take paces.
 - ② She learns to be a scientist.
 - ③ She learns to tie a loop on a rope.
 - ④ She learns to be a dragon catcher.
25. Why was the princess the best in the whole group?
- ① Because she had the fastest time in class.
 - ② Because she threw the rope farther than others.
 - ③ Because she threw the rope four paces away.
 - ④ Because she killed five dragons.
