Reading Comprehension

[Questions 13-24]

[13-15] Read the passage and answer the questions.

Alice walked for a while until she saw a deer fawn standing under a tree watching her. Cautiously, she approached it.

"Hello," she said to the delicate creature. "What are you doing here in these…" and Alice stopped talking right there because she couldn't remember the name for the place where they were.

"I'm a little lost and I can't seem to remember my name," said the fawn.

"Oh, how sad!" said Alice. "Perhaps I can help," she said and tried to introduce herself. "I'm... well, I'm me. But I can't seem to remember what I'm called right now either. It must be this place! I suppose we will have to keep walking until we get out of this place. It seems to make us forget the names of things!"

So Alice and the fawn walked together through the woods, talking as friends might. Except their conversation was filled with incomplete sentences because they couldn't remember the names of things.

13. What problem did the fawn NOT have?

① It was lost.

② It couldn't remember Alice's name.

③ It couldn't remember its name.

④ It couldn't remember the names of things.

14. What did Alice suggest she and the fawn should do?

① She suggested they keep walking until they get out of the place.

② She suggested the fawn remember her name.

③ She suggested they try really hard to remember what their names were.

④ She suggested they talk as friends might.

15. Why was their conversation filled with incomplete sentences?

① Because they weren't walking together.

② Because they were talking as friends might.

③ Because they couldn't remember the names of things.

④ Because they were having trouble forgetting the names of things.

[16-18] Read the passage and answer the questions.

Mowgli threw his arms around the panther. "I am helping the humans. The cattle are important to them," he said. Mowgli was thrilled to see his friend. "It is good to see you!"

"It is good to see you, too," Bagheera said. "I have come to warn you. Shere Khan, the tiger, is hunting you again. He thinks that now that the wolf pack has cast you out and you are living among humans, you will be easy prey."

"Why does he hate me so much?" Mowgli wondered.

"You escaped from him when you were a baby," Bagheera said. "He hates any animal to get away from him. Besides, he thinks that humans are weak and that you will be easy to catch."

"Does he?" Mowgli sat up straight. "Well, perhaps he has made a mistake about that! Do you know where Shere Khan is now?"

Bagheera stood up and shook himself. "I shall find out and tell you tomorrow."

16. How was Mowgli helping the humans?

① He was helping the humans by warning them.
② He was helping the humans by hunting Shere Khan.
③ He was helping them by being easy prey.
④ He was helping them by working with cattle.

① He is a human, like Mowgli.
② He is a panther.
③ He is a tiger.
④ He is one of the cattle.

18. What is true about Mowgli?

① He said cattle are important to him.
② He had been cast out by the wolf pack.
③ He thought he was weak and would be easy to catch.
④ He had come to warn Bagheera about Shere Khan.

[19-21] Read the passage and answer the questions.

"I have been thinking about the effect the publication of our discovery could have on the lives of those magnificent dinosaurs," the professor said.

"What do you mean?" asked Eddie.

"Think about it," said Jamal. "Can you imagine the helicopter tours? The theme parks? Everyone in the world would want to see the dinosaurs."

Eddie shook his head. "I never thought about that. They seem to have a nice life down in that valley, don't they?"

The professor nodded. "Very nice. People have made such a polluted mess of so much of the world. As much as I would enjoy the fame this discovery would give me, I feel it's our duty to leave this part of the world as it is."

Eddie's heart sank. But he knew that Professor Challenger was right.

"We must make a pact to protect this place," the professor said, looking at the team. "It has survived without humans for millions of years. Humans could destroy this place in less than a decade."

Everyone agreed, even Dr. Webber. "I never saw anything!" he said, grinning.

19. What discovery did the team make?

① They discovered a publication about dinosaurs.
② They discovered helicopter tours and theme parks.
③ They discovered a polluted mess.
④ They discovered dinosaurs in a valley.

20. What can be inferred from the passage?

② The professor was going to enjoy the fame of the discovery.
③ The dinosaurs were suffering because of humans.
④ If other people knew about the place, they could destroy it.

21. What did everyone agree about?

① They agreed to have a nice life in the valley.
② They agreed that it was their duty to report the discovery.
③ They agreed to protect the place from humans.
④ They agreed to protect the other humans from the dinosaurs.

[22-24] Read the passage and answer the questions.

"Is there nothing that can be done?" asked King Uther.

"Not for you, sire," Merlin replied. "I am afraid that your fate is already written, but your son may yet survive."

"How?" said King Uther. "You must tell me."

"Let me take him to a safe place," Merlin replied. "I swear that I will watch over him until he comes of age and can safely claim his throne."

King Uther was deeply shocked by what he had heard. However, the king also realized that if the prophecy were true, Merlin was his son's only hope. King Uther also knew that Merlin had served him faithfully as an adviser for many years and had never lied to him.

"Go," King Uther said, "while the queen is still sleeping. Go now, Merlin, and quickly."

"As you wish, sire," said Merlin. "I swear on my life to always protect the prince and ensure that he is able to claim his rightful throne when he comes of age."

Merlin bowed, knowing that this would be the last time he saw the king, and walked away.

Merlin hurried from the Great Hall to the royal nursery where the young prince was sleeping. Taking great care, Merlin picked up the baby and left the nursery. He then hurried to the stables and placed the prince in a basket that he tied securely to his horse's saddle. He quickly climbed onto the white horse and rode out of the castle grounds into the darkness.

22. What did Merlin mean when he said, "I am afraid that your fate is already written."?

① Merlin could change the future.
② There was nothing Merlin could do.
③ Merlin refused to help the king.
④ Merlin couldn't do anything about the past.

23. Which is NOT true about Merlin?

① He had been a trustful adviser.
② He was the only hope for King Uther's son.
③ He was going to save the king and the queen.
④ He had never lied to King Uther.

24. What can be inferred from the passage?

① Merlin would protect the prince until he was old enough to become the king.
② Merlin took the baby after the queen woke up.
③ King Uther didn't believe Merlin's prophecy.
④ Merlin placed the baby in the royal nursery.
